

$85.00

Woman — Man

KRATZERVILLE — Paul's Lutheran Church was the setting for the ceremony uniting Amanda Woman and Benjamin Man in marriage. The Rev. So and So performed the service at 12:30 p.m. Dec. 1, 2006.

The bride is the daughter of Mike and Juanita Woman, of Kratzerville. The bridegroom is the son of Harold and Melissa Man, of Philadelphia.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose her sister, Liz Smith, of Somewhere, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were This One, of Tyrone; That One, of Freeburg; Another One, of Pittsburgh.; and Yet Another, of Allentown. The flower girl was Susie Cute, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Zachary One of Allentown. Ushers were Lucas Two, of Milton; Bryan Three, of Watsonstown; Nathan Three, of Allentown, brother-in-law of the bride; and Fred Four, of York. The ring bearer was Jimmy Cute, of Mount Pleasant Mills, cousin of the bride.

A reception was held at La Primavera, Lewisburg. After a wedding trip in Walt Disney World, the couple are living in White Deer.

The bride is a 2002 gradu-

THEN ...

... NOW

ate of Selinsgrove Area High School, and a 2004 graduate of Pennsylvania State University, with a degree in elementary education. She is employed by the Milton Area School District.

The bridegroom is a 2000 graduate of Lewisburg Area High School, and a 2004 graduate of Susquehanna University, with a degree in health/physical education. He is employed by the Selinsgrove Area School District.